Dear Ms. Manning,

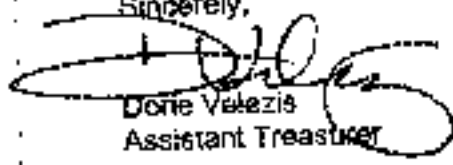

The Campaign for Working Families (FED ID# C00325076) is in receipt of your letter dated August 7, 2002, referencing activity for the April 2002 reporting period.

The Committee has addressed the issue of occupation and employer information in several previous responses, most recently on July 8, 2002. Once again, enclosed please find a sample committee solicitation. This solicitation, like all our solicitations, informs the donor that the committee is required to report the information, and asks that the donor provide it.

In addition, please find another sample of the letter we send to those donors whose contributions exceed $200, but who do not provide us with their occupation and employer information when they send their contribution. We believe that this follow-up letter, which is sent out within thirty days of receipt of the contribution fulfills the "stand alone" provision in the regulations. A pre-addressed envelope (sample enclosed) is included with each follow-up request. All such information received is reported. In this manner, the committee believes that it is meeting the best efforts provisions outlined in your letters.

The contribution to Montalvo for Congress should have been reported as being designated to Primary Debt. The May Monthly Report has been amended to more clearly state the appropriate designation of this contribution.

Sincerely,

Dore Velez

Dear «TITLE» «LAST_NAME»,

Thank you for your generous contribution to Campaign for Working Families.

As you may already be aware, federal election law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation, and employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year. I have provided space at the bottom of this letter for you to list your occupation and employer. Please fill out this information and return this letter to us in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope, so that we may be in compliance with federal regulations. We apologize for this inconvenience and thank you again for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Gary L. Bauer

Dear Friend,

Enclosed is your 2001 Campaign for Working Families (CWF) Membership Card . . .

. . . and also your 2001 CWF Membership Renewal Statement.

Your card is a symbol of the commitment we've made to each other, to our families and to hundreds of thousands of unborn children -- a commitment to fight in the arena of politics for family, faith and freedom, the values we hold dear.

But your CWF Membership Card is more than just a symbol.

It is also tangible proof of what we can accomplish working together.

You see, because of your steadfast commitment and your unswerving generosity last year, we accomplished something which hasn't been done in the last 42 years: Campaign for Working Families helped elect a pro-family, pro-life President and a pro-family, pro-life Congress.

In the last weeks of the 2000 campaign, CWF spent every penny we had identifying and turning out pro-family voters. In Florida, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin, Missouri, and New York, we targeted millions of pro-life voters and got them to the polls on Election Day.

And while we had some losses, most notably Senators John Ashcroft and Spence Abraham and Congressman Jim Rogan, CWF supported 120 pro-life candidates in the last election. And over 83% of these candidates won their races, including Senators Rick Santorum of Pennsylvania and John Ensign of Nevada and over half the incoming Republican freshman Congressional class.

But supporting pro-family, pro-life candidates in the 2000 elections was only part of our success in the last year.

In California, we successfully supported Proposition

22, defining marriage as the union of one man and one woman, and supported similar measures in Nebraska and Nevada.

And in Maine we defeated a proposed law which, if passed, would have given homosexuality the same legal standing as religion or race.

So you can see, your support of CWF in 2000 really did make a difference.

But now, we must turn our attention to the coming year.

We have a golden opportunity to make real changes in Washington. We have a chance to end partial birth abortion, to reverse Bill Clinton's "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy allowing homosexuals in our military and perhaps to even see the appointment of several conservative Supreme Court justices.

But we also have some challenges, challenges which will require you and me to renew our commitment to our cause and to each other.

Just look at what we're up against:

- * The radical "gay rights" lobby is already planning new and more dangerous threats to traditional marriage in no fewer than two dozen states in 2001. CWF needs to be ready with all our resources to fight them in the states and at the federal level if necessary.

- * Feminist activists will most certainly do everything in their power to stop Congress from passing a ban on partial-birth abortion. We must work to pass another such ban and ensure it arrives on President Bush's desk for his signature.

- * Big Spenders on the left will fight any tax-relief tooth-and-nail. But we must push for tax relief, particularly for an end to the so-called "marriage penalty" which makes married couples pay higher taxes than singles.

- * Pro-abortion forces are working to increase funding for RU-486 and other "designer death drugs" and are working day and night to make this drug available without a prescription! We must stop them from turning RU-486 into nothing more than an "over-the-counter" drug.

The above battles are just those which we will fight over the next six months. This does not even include our efforts to fight for abortion waiting periods, school choice at the local level, or to give Crisis Pregnancy Centers the same funding as Planned Parenthood and other pro-abortion "counseling" centers.

What's more, we also face a daunting mid-term election in 2002 with an evenly divided Senate, a razor-thin House majority, and many Republican governors in tough re-election battles.

And that's why your help today is so critical.

In the coming year, CWF will spend over $1.2 million to directly support elected officials who share our values and our commitment.

We will spend this money to lay the ground work to win the 2002 elections but also to help encourage our supporters in Congress to stand firm. You see it is our contributions which give our supporters freedom and peace of mind; they know we'll stand with them in the face of the liberal attacks.

Now I hope you'll stand with us.

Please detach your 2001 CWF Membership Card and keep it in your wallet. Then please return your 2001 CWF Membership Renewal Statement along with the full amount of the suggested 2001 Membership contribution.

And please be as generous as you can.

Unlike the feminist lobby or other groups on the radical left, CWF doesn't receive taxpayer dollars or forced union dues to fund our agenda.

We rely exclusively on voluntary contributions from you and others who share our values.

But please no matter what, do not take money away from your family, your church or the charities you regularly support to help CWF. If you can't afford to renew your support of CWF at this time, please know I understand.

But if you can send the full amount of your 2001 Membership

Over, please . . .

Gift, I hope you will today.

Make no mistake --- the Left is well-funded. And they are angry. They believe the 2000 elections were stolen from them. And more than ever they are prepping to fight for their radical agenda in Congress and in the coming 2002 campaigns.

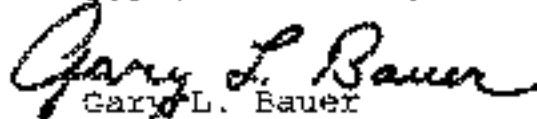

CWF is the only pro-life, pro-family political action committee which can directly support our friends in Congress and directly oppose our enemies.

But we cannot succeed without you.

So please renew your support for 2001. Please be as generous as you can when you return your 2001 CWF Membership Renewal Statement to me in the envelope I have enclosed.

Thank you and may God bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Gary L. Bauer
Chairman

P.S. The recent attacks on Senator John Ashcroft are a sign of what's to come for those bold enough to speak their mind and cherish their beliefs. This year, religious conservatives, like John Ashcroft, you, and me will face an uphill battle in promoting our pro-family agenda which includes defending traditional marriage, lowering taxes on American families, and fighting for the very lives of the unborn.

The membership card I've enclosed identifies you as someone who is unafraid to stand up for those values. Now I need to know: will you put those words into action by supporting CWF? Please send the full amount of your suggested 2001 CWF Membership Renewal in the envelope I've enclosed for your use. Thanks again.

I have received my 2021 CWF Membership Card. I, too, am proud of all we have achieved together working for pro-life, pro-family, pro-free enterprise candidates and causes in the past. And I am unafraid to stand with you against the Left in 2021.
